Why the records of Raleigh's municipal count were destroyed is plain. Who did it? is the question now to be solved.

If Taft keeps on as he has started out he will not have the support of the politicians of his party for renomination.

When will party leaders learn that they can't fool the people by the declarations and demands they put in the platforms?

Blessed are those who expected nothing in the way of tariff reform from a Republican Congress, for they shall not be disappointed.

Congressman Fordney can't say, as does Speaker Cannon, that he never swears, for they have got the official records on him.

When the pie slicing is taken from the Republican leaders in the South the emptly honors of the position will be apt to go a-begging.

Charlotte should make her May 20th celebration this year a State affair, and the whole State should take a hand in making it a big one.

With the public now it is more a feeling of curiosity as to what Taft will do about the Eastern District Judgeship than interest in the appointment.

If North Carolina wants to keep such men as Drs. Alderman and Smith she should not let other States make it so much more to their interest to leave her.

We hope the President will consider Congressman Ellerbee's protest against a man from Pennsylvania being appointed postmaster for Florence, S. C. as well made.

What an unsavory smell comes from the city hall at Raleigh. The News and Observer has unearthed what seems to be a most scandalous state of affairs.

Newbern seems to be jealous of Raleigh's claim that the latter has more blind tigers than any city in the State. Wilmington's proud bost is that she has fewer.

Why did the Wadesboro paper wait until Roosevelt had gotten out of the county to publish the story about that old Anson county negro woman who is the mother of twenty-four children?

It seems that the Republicans in not submitting the proposed draft of the tariff bill to the minority members of the Ways and Means Committee were following a precedent established by the Democrats.

IN SUPERIOR COURT

One Week Term For Trial of Criminal Actions Convened Here Yesterday.

TRIAL OF COX HAS BEGUN

Charged With House-burning Last Fall—Organization and Vigorous Charge to Grand Jury by tion of River—Notes.

The one-week term of New Hanover Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases convened yesterday, Judge William R. Allen presiding. Following organization for the term and a particularly clear and wholesome charge to the grand jury by His Honor, the court got immediately down to business and a number of cases were disposed of while a large part of the afternoon until 6:15 o'clock yesterday evening was taken up in an effort to get a jury to try the case against B. Coxe, white, charged with houseburning, which will be resumed upon the reconvening of court at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

It will be recalled that Coxe is charged with burning the first toll house last Fall, an excess of insurance on the contents being assigned by the State as a motive for the alleged crime. The case was taken up yesterday afternoon shortly after the dinner recess and although 75 talesmen were called, only eight jurors had been finally accepted by the State and defense when court took a recess. The eight men passed upon are Messrs. W. J. Reaves, D. W. Trask, J. M. Wolff, I. D. Lowry, A. D. Wessell, Jr., J. H. Pickett, J. F. Baggett and T. J. Herring. Those in the box when court took a recess but not yet passed upon are Messrs J. Carmer Davis, R. H. Brady, and J. B. Hand. The panel will be completed out of the regular tales jurors summoned for this morning.

The case is being hard fought by Solicitor Duffy and Hon. John D. Bellamy for the State, the latter representing the State Insurance Department, while the defendant is being represented by Messrs. Bellamy and Bellamy and Herbert McClammy. Among the witnesses for the State are Deputy State Insurance Commissioner W. A. Scott, of Raleigh, and Colonel Walker Taylor, of Wilmington, the latter having carried the insurance policy which Coxe is alleged to have offered to compromise. Coxe is in court accompanied by his wife and little daughter about five years old, who sat with him all through the afternoon yesterday. It is expected that the case will require all of today and, perhaps a part of tomorrow for completion.

A feature of the opening of the term was a particularly clear and vigorous charge to the grand jury by Judge Allen, who touched especially upon the prohibition law and the best methods of its enforcement, being a strong believer in the doctrine of imprisonment for violations rather than fines, which he said in many cases amounted to nothing less than licensing the sale of liquor in its worst form. He also referred to the evils of gambling especially that form of it known as dealing in "futures." He insructed the jury fully as to its duties and referred to the responsibilities devolving upon its members.

A case of some interest disposed of during the early afternoon was that of J. B. Bryan, of Newbern, a young white man who resisted an officer and created a general disturbance here during the firemen's tournament. He gave cash bond for his appearance but failed to put in an appearance at several terms of the court and the bond was finally forfeited. Yesterday he appeared in court with his attorney, Romulus A. Nunn, Esq., of Newbern, who stated to the court that Bryan had just completed a term in Craven for selling liquor, had made a most exemplary prisoner and was now ready to plead guilty to the offences committed in New Hanover. Judge Allen, after hearing from the Solicitor, permitted the judgment absolute for amount of bond to be stricken out and Bryan was fined $20 and costs in the cases against him, the amount being paid and the prisoner returning with his counsel on the afternoon train.

Court convened at 10 A. M., all officers of the court in attendance except Solicitor Duffy, who came in on the afternoon train, E. M. Koonce, Esq., acting as solicitor until Mr. Duffy came in on the afternoon train. Of the 36 jurors summoned for the week, J. F. Woolvin, D. N. Chadwick and W. VanHardin were excused for reasons sufficient.

With Mr. F. L. Huggins as foreman and Captain E. Piner as bailiff in charge, the grand jury was drawn as follows: J. E. Hatch, W. W. King, Jr., I. B. Rhodes, I. J. Bear, Walter Hannah, J A. Montgomery, A. E. Eakins, C. R. Anderson, J. A. Applewhite, W. G. Cleapor, J E. Hines, W. T. Hansley, W. A. French, Theo. Biddle, P. Heinsberger, Jr., and Ralph Kennedy.

Nol pros with leave was entered in the following cases: Ed Coleman, gambling; J. E. Allen, not furnishing owner with amount of indebtedness in building contract; John Hargrove, sci fa, judgment absolute; Chas. H. Grady, cruelty to animals.

The following cases were disposed of during the day:

Isaac Simons, trading horses without license; verdict not guilty.

Belle Bryant, larceny, judgment nisi, sci fa and capias.

Joe Kirkham, assault with deadly weapon, verdict not guilty.

E. G. A. Nyreen, carrying a concealed weapon, pleaded guilty, fined $15 and costs.

J. B. Bryan, resisting officer, pleade guilty; fined $15 and costs; sci fa dismissed on payment of costs at sci fa.

Peter Austin, peace warrant, appeal dismissed.

Walter Wallace, assault with deadly weapon; pleaded guilty in four cases and judgment left open. Wallace is the negro youth who fired into a colored school on the Scott's Hill road during the last term of court, wounding several of the pupils. Sentence will be pronounced later.

COVERT ATTACK IS MADE

Anonymous Interests Would Deter Organization of New Wilmington Corporation That Has Most Inviting Field.

The incorporators of the Carolina Bonding and Guaranty Corporation, which was recently chartered by the Legislature with headquarters in Wilmington, and which has an unusually bright future before it, are justly indignant at the development Saturday of a covert and most reprehensible attack upon them in the surreptitious mailing from Wilmington of anonymous circular letters containing clippings alleged to be from the Spectator, an insurance journal, and the New York Journal of Commerce, in which some interested genius had compiled all the unfavorable history relating to mismanaged companies for years past, under the caption, "Is the Surety Business an Inviting Field For Capital," and seeking to discourage capital in investing in such an enterprise.

Some of these anonymous letters were mailed to local investors directly from a prominent Northern city in plain envelopes, but to make the deception more effective an agent was without a doubt sent to Wilmington, who, on Saturday last and designing evidently to add the force of a Wilmington postmark, had similar circulars mailed from Wilmington to every bank and banker in the Carolinas.

Significance is found in the fact that the Wilmington company, organized by bankers, had expressed a purpose to secure stockholders among the bankers of these two States, in view of the fact that bankers generally are patrons of such companies, and were in the act of mailing literature to them. Greater significance is found, however, in the fact that while all other bankers in the two States received copies of the anonymous circulars, not one was sent to a Wilmington banker. The Wilmington bankers are not discouraged by the covert thrust and say they will have no difficulty in placing their stock. They point to the great prosperity of the successful companies and propose to rebuke the effort to strangle competition by demonstrating that under careful and economical management, and steering clear of all wild-cat methods of investment, that the Carolina Bonding and Guaranty Corporation will succeed from the start.

Heretofore the field for the fidelity, surety, bonding and guaranty companies has been exclusively in the large cities North and notwithstanding North Carolina's participation in the fire and life business, the bonding and surety field has not been invaded until now and it is clearly in evidence that the big companies North are not going to stand the loss of large business in the Carolinas to a home enterprise, if it can be avoided. Wilmington bankers, mindful of the phenomenal success of these Northern companies and the unnecessary flow of money to enrich and develop non-resident concerns, became interested and during the recent session of the Legislature secured the charter, which has been detailed at length in these columns.

That the big non-resident companies were watching the situation and did not propose to give up the large, profitable local business without a fight in the open or otherwise, was manifest in the closing hours of the Legislature which granted the charter to the local enterprise when a "sneak" bill was attempted in both Houses that would practically nullify the Wilmington charter. Fortunately the Wilmington banking interests happened to be on the scene at the time and frustrated the plans of the opposition, merely by calling attention to the animus in the matter.

The promoters of the local enterprise are with two exceptions officers of all the Wilmington banks and do not propoose to sit idly by and see foreign interests continue to gobble up local business, especially in such covert andsurreptitious manner.

Vegetable Prices North.

A solid car of lettuce from the fine farm of Mayor Wm. E. Springer in East Wilmington was sold on the Philadelphia market yesterday, red radishes bringing $1.50 and white, $1.75. He will ship another car of this vegetable today. Commission men telegraph that lettuce is wanted at $1.50 to $2.00 per basket. Some prices from Philadelphia are quoted as high as $2.50 per basket. These prices are generally regarded as very satisfactory.

AUDIT AND FINANCE

Newly Appointed Board Qualified and Organized by Election of Chairman Yesterday.

MR. MATT J. HEYER CHOSEN

Testimonial to Retiring Chairman McQueen—Capt. T. D. Meares Elected Clerk—Question of Salaries Not Taken Up.

The newly commissioned Board of Audit and Finance for the city of Wilmington met yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at the office of the Board at the City Hall and after taking the oath of office provided by law as administered by City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler in his capacity of a justice of the peace, the members organized by electing Mr. Matt J. Heyer chairman and Captain Thomas D. Meares, clerk.

Although there had been frequent mention of the new Board's purpose to decrease salaries beginning with the clerk of that body, no action was taken yesterday, it being the implied purpose of the Board to defer these matters until the beginning of the new fiscal year on June 1st. After formally organizing and passing a very handsome testimonial to the retiring chairman, Mr. H. C. McQueen, the Board took a recess subject to call of the chairman.

Members of the new Board assembled promptly at 12:30, all members being in attendance, viz: Messrs. H. C. McQueen, Jesse Wilder, M. G. Tiencken, W. B. Cooper and M. J. Heyer, the two last named being the new appointees to succeed Messrs. C. W. Yates and S. P. McNair.

After the prescribed oath had been taken by the members, Mr. Tiencken moved that Mr. Wilder be called to the chair, but he declined, and upon motion of Mr. Cooper that Mr. McQueen be made temporary chairman, Mr. McQueen stated that he preferred that some one else act and Mr. Tiencken was chosen. He declared that the election of a permanent chairman was in order and Mr. Cooper nominated Mr. Heyer. Members prepared their ballots and the vote resulted: Heyer 3, McQueen 1 and Wilder 1. Mr. Heyer was duly declared elected and he took the chair, declaring the election of a clerk next in order. Mr. Meares was nominated by Mr. Tiencken, the motion being seconded with a great deal of pleasure by Mr. McQueen. Mr. Meares' election was unanimous.

Chairman Heyer stated that the next business in order was the fixing of the salary of clerk, but Mr. Tiencken explained that the precedent was to fix all salaries at the beginning of the new fiscal year and this matter was deferred.

Mr. W. B. Cooper introduced the following very handsome compliment to Mr. McQueen the retiring chairman, which was passed with enthusiasm:

"Upon the retirement of Mr. Henry C. McQueen from the chairmanship of this board, it is desired by the board to place upon record its appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him to the city of Wilmington. Public spirited where the progress of the city required liberality, conservative where prudence was needed he has at all times carefully guarded and protected the finances of the city. While maintaining his own convictions upon subjects requiring the consideration of the board, he has at all time been courteous to the other members. We are glad to place upon our records the sentiments, as we believe, of the people of Wilmington generally, as well as of this board."

After the business was transacted several members took occasion to make plain their position in view of certain reports growing out of the recent contest before the Legislature. Mr. Wilder resented strongly the imputation that he belonged to any "ring" or "clique" and spoke with some vigor, saying that there was "no Fido collar" made for his neck and he would wear none. Mr. Tiencken explained his course in all the imbroglio, paying a compliment to the men associated with him so pleasantly in former times and making plain his position. Chairman Heyer at length ruled that there was nothing before the House and a recess was take as stated.

Mr. Haynes Edwards in Extremis.

In response to a telegram announcing that his grandfather, Mr. Haynes Edwards, of Bladenboro, was dying, A. H. Pait, Esq., of the Wilmington bar, left yesterday afternoon to be with the family in the hour of their trouble. Mr. Edwards is one of the largest farmers as well as one of the leading business men of Bladen. He is about 80 years of age and is held in the highest esteem by all in the circle of his acquaintance.

THE RALEIGH IMBROGLIO

Following Two Arrests, Chief of Police is Suspended Pending Investigation of Destruction of Records—Other News.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., March 29.—Sensational developments followed thick and fast in the imbroglio which has sprung up here in connection with the city campaign and the unaccountable destruction of the police records, which were being investigated at the time. The Police Commission today voted unanimously to suspend Chief of Police Junius H. Mullins, this being preceded late Sunday night by two arrests in connection with the destruction of the records.

The Republicans issued a circular which was broadcasted over the streets Sunday, calling on their people to stay away from the city primary tomorrow and calling on all independents to take the same course, which probably means that another ticket will be placed in the field before the election in May to oppose the Democratic ticket nominated tomorrow. Late last night the police arrested a white man named Van Gill, who used to drive a mail wagon here and who has spent some time North. Following the arrest of Gill, who said that he had some of the missing warrants in his possession but had given them to a negro named Albert Davis, alias Tobie Slick, the latter was arrested. Gill was about half drunk when taken to the police station and told all sorts of stories to city officials who plied him with questions, all of the stories proving untrue when investigated. Gill and the negro Slick are next door neighbors and have been pretty intimate. Gill was confronted with the negro and said that if he were turned loose he would tell all he knew. He was turned loose and said Slick did it. He was promptly re-arrested. The negro was later discharged.

Rumors have been flying thick and fast about this remarkable case. The names of two other men, both white and who have cut some figure in local politics here, are frequently mentioned in connection with the obliteration of the records and other arrests are expected at any time. Mayor Johnson says he is doing everything in his power to get at the man who did the work. Nothing Gill has said has been believed.

Chief Mullins, who was suspended today has held the position ten years and his suspension is until the mystery regarding the mutilation of the books and records of himself and Police Justice Badger is cleared up and he is exonerated. Police Captain Beasley is named as acting chief.

Mullins' attorney said tonight he believed a gang was implicated in the mutilation of the records and that while Van Gill might not be guilty yet he believes Gill knew about it. He said other arrests would be made. Those holding Gill to be guilty claim he did the work to destroy a long record of cases against his brother, but the general opinion is that he had nothing to do with the matter.

The Philadelphia Nationals defeated the A. & M. baseball team here today 4 to 1.

All day in Superior Court here was taken up with selection of nine jurors out of a special venire of 250 to try the Smith murder case. Another special venire of 35 is required to complete the panel. It is expected that all of today will be required to get the remaining three jurors.

The Southern notifies the Corporation Commission that it and the A. C. L. will occupy the new union station at Goldsboro April 1st. An order will be issued requiring the Norfolk & Southern to show cause why it has not complied with the order of the Commission requiring it also to enter the union station.

BASEBALL AT THE FORT

Championship Season Opened Saturday, Nineteenth Company Winning.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fort Caswell, N. C., March 29.—The championship season of the Caswell Baseball League was opened here Saturday with a game between the "Cubs", representing the 79th Company, and the Tigers, who represent the 19th Company. The game was won by the latter, score 9 to 6.

Captain McCumber, of the Tigers, was on the firing line for his team and Grist was at the receiving end. Smith of the Cubs, did the twirling for his team until the end of the eighth when he was replaced by Cary whose efforts failed to stop the run-hungry jungle contingent of Tigers. Hopkins, of the Cubs, did phenomenal work behind the bat.

The Senators, of the 31st Company, play Monday in their first game of the season. They have a strong team and will cut a big figure in the race for the championship.

An exhibition game was played Friday between Southport's fast team and a picked team from the Caswell League, resulting in a victory for the latter, 9 to 7. Schanifelt, of the Tigers, was in the box for Caswell and Toms pitched for the visitors. The same teams again tried conclusions Saturday, Caswell winning 8 to 3.

The 19th Company held its target practice on the big guns Saturday, making the remarkable record of 17 hits out of 18 shots all fired in one minute and two seconds.

AN IMPORTANT VISIT

Distinguished Arrivals Yesterday on Board United States Lighthouse Steamer Cypress.

AS TO CAPE FEAR LIGHTS

Conference With Prominent Local Commercial Interests and Government Officials—Inspectionof River—Notes.

The fine steamer "Cypress," of the United States Light House Department service, arrived here early yesterday with Commander Heatherington, U. S. N., Inspector of this District, and Captain Comly, U. S. N., a prominent Washington official, second only in rank to Admiral Marix, chairman of the Board.

The object of their visit had been previously communicated to Captain Earl I. Brown, Corps of Engineers, and to Mr. James Sprunt, chairman of the Board of Navigation and Pilotage, who were invited to make such presentations in respect to the application for better lights on the Cape Fear river which had been recommended by the Inspector and which Captain Comly was prepared to consider in detail, as they might deem proper. Full reports of traffic had been accordingly made, which being in line with Captain Brown's official report, the latter's figures were accepted and Captain Comly's recommendation will be made accordingly.

Captain Comly expressed surprise at the volume of trade and commerce of Wilmington which far exceeded his expectations. After an official interview with Captain Brown, of the Engineers, the Naval officers on the "Cypress" received a delegation composed of Mr. James Sprunt and Captain J. W. Harper, of the Board of Navigation; Mr. J. W. Craig and Captain E. D. Williams, of the Special Committee; Mr. James H. Chadbourn, president of the North Carolina Waterways, and Mr. J. A. Taylor, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and L. B. McKoy, clerk of the Board of Navigation and Pilotage.

Captain Comly was urged to recommend the acetylene gas lights, not only for present needs, but anticipating a constantly increasing commerce. He replied that the Light House Board recognized the need of better lights on the Cape Fear river, and he had comoe to thoroughly investigate the situation. He saw the reasonableness of the local contention and he approved in the main the report of the Committee from the Board of Navigation and Pilotage, in proof of which he had brought along with him on the Cypress the desired whistling buoy to be placed about two miles from the bell buoy at the bar for the benefit of navigators approaching the bar. He was not prepared to advocate the acetylene lights as yet because he thought that an oil lamp with magnifying lenses of much greater power than those now in use, each costing over $200, would be better suited to the needs. This improvement would cost over $60,000 and, in his opinion, would meet the requirements of Wilmington's commerce for many years to come.

He disapproved of the desired sector lights as altogether unsuited for the narrow channel. He thought the channel should be widened as soon as practicable because with such limited width it was impossible for a vessel to meet any emergency while under way by anchoring without getting aground. He regarded a wider channel as of perhaps more importance than a deeper one.

In the afternoon Captain Comly and Commander Heatherington drove to the sound with Messrs. Sprunt, Taylor and Chadbourn. Immediately on their return the naval officers repaired on board the Cypress and proceeded with Mr. J. W. Craig and Captain E. D. Williams of the Board of Navigation Committee, to inspect the river lights and ranges.

They returned late last night and Captain Comly will proceed by rail to Washington this morning.

INDIANS ON THE WARPATH.

The press dispatches from Oklahoma read like old times when Apaches, Sioux and other tribes of Indians were constantly on the war-path, raiding settlements of the whites. Crazy Snake and his band of Creeks with half-breeds and fugitive negroes from surrounding States to the number of two hundred or more, all supplied with firearms of modern make and plenty of ammunition, have taken up a strong position, and at last accounts a pitched battle with State troops was imminent; perhaps has already taken place. In the past few days several of the sheriff's officers have been killed in attempts to arrest Crazy Snake. The people in the Henryetta section of the State, where the hostile band is located, are greatly excited over the situation and fear attack before the troops can arrive The latter were expected to reach the Indian's camp yesterday and to make a general attack at once.

Crazy Snake has never been satisfied with the individual allotment of the Creek lands. He and his followers want to keep up the old tribal conditions. They are said to be among the most primitive of the Indians. Few of them speak English and they are very hostile toward the whites. The chief has two sons who have been given collegiate education in the East. One of them with his father attended the Taft inauguration and is still in Washington. The other son was with his father at the beginning of the uprising and has been captured by the sheriff.

We suppose this will be another case of extermination of a band of Indians, for Crazy Snake's followers say they will fight so long as there are enough men left to do battle.

PROFESSOR SMITH'S RESIGNATION.

The announcement that Dr. C. Alfonso Smith has accepted the position tendered him as professor of English in the University of Virginia will be received by the people of this State with great regret. A dispatch to the Charlotte Observer of yesterday states that he has decided to accept the new position. It is said the negotiations have been under way for a year. As soon as Dr. Harrison decided to retire from the professorship he began urging that Dr. Smith be chosen as his successor. The latter has been professor of English at our State University since 1902 and has also been the dean of the graduate department. In regard to his accepting the new position Dr. Smith said: "I have given the matter most careful consideration. Nothing can change my love for the University of North Carolina or my native State, but the call to the University of Virginia is a call to a wider field of service, and I shall labor there as I have labored here, with whatever strength is in me for the upbuilding of a great institution and the honoor of a great State."

Early in April Dr. Smith will begin a four weeks' course of lectures before the students of the University of Cincinnati.

TAFT AND THE MECKLENBURG DECLARATION.

It seems that the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence is likely to become an important issue in the next Presidential campaign. The Observer has already begun a movement to have the Democratic National Convention embrace in its platform a declaration of its verity, by a covert threat of the devil to pay politically down in that neck of the woods if such is not done, especially should the Republican platform declare belief in its authenticity. Of course, on President Taft's visit to Charlotte on May 20th next he will become convinced of the importance of having such a plank in the platform on which he is to stand for re-election, and the Observer gives the Democrats timely warning of this proposed movement on the part of the Republicans so they may take steps to head it off.

THAT MISSISSIPPI'S SILVER SERVICE.

Speaking of the movement to have Jefferson Davis' head engraved on the silver service to be presented to the battleship Mississippi by the State whose name it bears the Charlotte Observer says it is hard to believe that it can be meant seriously, and continues:

"Long established custom prescribes the donor State's coat-of-arms and a few words of narrative; departure from this custom would be improper under any circumstances, and in the present case it would be villainously improper. For the Federal Government or the North to receive Confederate emblems in a spirit of complete reconciliation is one thing; for the South to force Confederate emblems offensively forward where no emblems at all belong is quite another thing. * * * We trust that the present agitation will die naturally. The Confederate President's fame does not need to be, and could not be, helped by such an exhibition of bad manners and bad feeling."

That is putting it rather strongly; but we agree with the Observer that there should be no such proposition. We expressed our views on the subject in these columns a few days ago.

NORTH CAROLINA AND THE TARIFF.

In his "Gossip of the State Capital" in the Charlotte Observer, Colonel Fred A. Olds has this to say of the interest of North Carolinians in the tariff revision by Congress:

"It is remarkable that never before has the tariff presented itself in quite so personal a light to North Carolina as at present. Some of the leading men declare it to be the most delicate of all questions and business responds to it as a barometer does to fluctuations of the atmosphere. The fact is that the lumber men are just now on the ragged edge. So much is invested in North Carolina in pine timber of what is known as the 'second growth,' that the interests jeopardized by tariff changes are very great indeed and cover almost half the State; in fact, perhaps, twice half of it. Other interests besides those of timber are concerned in what is going on, and people make no bones saying that the tariff is a local issue."

TOO FOND OF CHICKEN.

Watt White, an Iredell county negro, has furnished a practical illustration of the adage of the pitcher going to the well once too often. His fondness for a Sunday dinner of chicken was his undoing and cost him his life. Mr. George West, not far from whose residence White lived, had been losing one or two chickens every Saturday night for two or three months. Last Saturday night West and his son watched the chicken house. White was seen to come and enter it. On being hailed he advanced on the elder of the two men, struck him with a stone and made a dash into the darkness. Both men fired, and, though they say they could not see the negro at the time, he was mortally wounded and died a few minutes later.

The Atlanta Journal suggests as a sure revenue raiser a tax on aspirants for office. We suggest as an amendment that the tax be increased with each recurring candidacy of a person, and that the tax be graded accordingly to the office. If this were done the people would get rid of many a chronic office-seeker. It would put the candidacy for President for the fourth time out of reach of a good many men.

"Mr. J. P. Caldwell, who is slowly gaining ground, has been removed from the Charlotte Sanitarium to his home, No. 603 South Tryon street. He is now able to sit up a good part of the time."—Charlotte News.

We are glad to note that Mr. Caldwell is still improving; but regret we are not able to report more rapid progress in his recovery. Mr. Caldwell's friends and admirers are legion and, near and far, there is universal sympathy for him and hope for his speedy recovery.

Does any body expect those "insurgent" Republican Congressmen to vote against their party when it comes to passing on a question of vital importance to the majority?? If so they will find themselves mightily fooled when the time comes.

We don't know whether that fellow who detsroyed the Raleigh court records ought to be sent to the penitentiary or to the lunatic asylum; though most insane persons would have shown more shrewdness in doing the work.

The News and Observer seconds the nomination of President Eliot for Ambassador to Great Britain. The vote for him would be unanimous except for the few men who want the place and their backers.

People interested pecuniarily in the subjects discussed will read some of those long-winded speeches on the tariff now being made in Congress; but how many members' votes will they influence?

The sixty-sixth annual boat race between Oxford and Cambridge will take place this week. Of the former races Oxford has won thirty-four, Cambridge thirty, while one was a dead heat.

By the time Congress gets through with its revision of the tariff people will wish Taft had broken his ante-election pledge to call an extra session for the purpose.

If Taft is able to keep the politicians at arms' length and to withstand their influence for four years he will prove himself to be a wonderful man.

"My Worst Aches"

"Every Month"

writes Mrs. Mattie Campbell, of Ratcliff, Tex., "I suffered untold misery. It is hard to say where my worst aches were, for I ached all over. At times I wished for death to end my suffering. Finally I decided to take Cardui, which has stopped my suffering and made my life worth living. I would not be back, like I was, before I took that wonderful medicine, CARDUI, for this whole world rolled at me feet."

Why suffer female pain, when Cardui, Woman's Relief, is in every drug store, waiting for you to give it a trial? It has helped thousands of others. Why not you? Female pain is a sign of female disease. Female disease is a sign of female weakness. Weakness, disease and pain, have been found to disappear, by the use of Wine of Cardui. Try it. All reliable druggists sell it.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The more the tariff is considered from the standpoint of a tax upon the people the more it looks like a local issue, as Gen. Hancock declared it to be. There are now represented in Washington hundreds of industries fighting for as big a share of the "pork barrel" as possible, and each scrambling for a bigger grab at the sustenance than the other. Meantime 90,000,000 people are called upon to pay the freight.—Birmingham News.

—Germany will continue to race with England for the biggest of the navies, but why need we dread either while the competition endures? Neither would feel safe from the other in sending a force after us—neither would be still while the other made herself rich or strong at our expense. Meantime, while they compete for the prize of preparedness why shouldn't we grow rich by attending to our own business and leaving industry unburdened?—Times-Union.

—Champ Clark's complain that the Republicans of the Ways and Means Committee had prepared the tariff bill without consulting their Democratic colleagues recalls one of the cleverest things ever said in the House of Representatives. The Mills bill was prepared by the Democratic members of the committee without consultation with the Republicans. When that bill was reported to the House Thomas B. Reed expressed his regrets that the contents of the measure had been withheld from the wise and prudent and revealed unto babes.—Philadelphia Record.

—The fact that the jury in the case of the Coopers was composed largely of farmers who can not read and write, caused a great deal of unfavorable comment. Their verdict, however, of murder in the second degree proves them to be men of good common sense at any rate. Many juries, composed of well educated men, have, within the common knowledge of all of us, fallen far short of doing their duty as nobly as did the jury in this case. The verdict, in the opinion of this paper, was an eminently righteous one.—Wadesboro Messenger.

—"Sunny Jim" Sherman, the new Vice President, is disappointing the Senate employes. One of the perquisites of the Vice President, by custom, is to order an expensive new inkstand for his desk, and to take the inkstand with him when he retires. Some inkstands so ordered and used and carried away have cost hundreds of dollars. But Mr. Sherman said the other day that he didn't want any fancy inkstand; that "any old thing would do, so it would hold ink." And that's why the Senate employes are shaking their heads and looking sad. They can't understand why anybody who can get anything at public expense shouldn't take it.—Savannah News.

—Now that we are getting annually millions of foreign immigrants from countries where the people live constantly under despotic rule, it is not surprising that they have imported their secret organizations for carrying on the most atrocious crimes, and in the lack of the severe laws and strenuous surveillance to which they were accustomed in their native countries, and under the lax administration of such laws as we have, it is not only not surprising that the Black Hand crimes are so frequent and so widely distributed over the country, but the wonder is that these criminals are not more rampant and daring than they are found to be.—New Orleans Picayune.

—Time was, not so long ago, when a Democratic Representative or Senator felt that the White House was not a place in which a self-respecting Congressman could venture. The lines seemed to be drawn rigidly against any Democratic statesmen who had a mind and will of his own and also an appreciation of the dignity of his position. And there were Republican statesmen who also were strangers to the White House. All this is to be changed now. Indeed, the change has already been effected. The atmosphere of the White House is one of courtesy for all visitors, whether they be of Mr. Taft's political faith or of the Democratic household. Its an atmosphere in which every self-respecting American will feel at ease—an environment of reasonableness, dignity and gentleness. It is a change so great that it might almost mark the beginning of the millennial era in American politics.—Baltimore Sun.

—Magistrate—You say you want a divorce because your married life is one long series of fights. You don't look it. Would-be-Divorcee—No, your your Honor, but you ought to see my wife.—The Circle.

—On the Edge—She—Economizing, are they? You surprise me! I understand they were simply rolling in wealth. He—Well, that may be true, but I believe they have to be careful not to roll too far.—St. Louis Times.

—"Your Honor," said the convicted beggar, "can't you change my sentence of imprisonment to a fine?" "Suppose I did," said the Judge, "where would you get the money to pay it?" "Oh," replied the convicted beggar, "I could beg a little every day till I had enough."—Chicago Daily News.

WORKS WONDERS

A Wonderful Compound—Cures Piles, Eczema, Skin Itching, Skin Eruptions, Cuts and Bruises.

Doan's Ointment is the best skin treatment, and the cheapest, because so little is required to cure. It cures piles after years of torture. It cures obstinate cases of eczema. It cures all skin itching. It cures skin eruptions. It heals cuts, bruises, scratches and abrasions without leaving a scar. It cures permanently. Wilmington testimony proves it.

J. S. King, 815 Orange St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "About five years ago I suffered untold agony from itching piles. I tried remedy after remedy but could get no relief. I finally read about Doan's Ointment and deciding to try it, purchased a box at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store. It soon cured me and I have had no return of the trouble since. Doan's Kidney Pills have also been used in my family for kidney trouble and have given entire satisfaction. These two preparations are worthy of the highest praise."

was the greatest success of any we have ever had. The store was crowded from early morning until it closed in the evening. The great number of ladies were not only looking, but buying. Exclamations of delight at the wonderful selections were heard on every hand and praise was heard coming from hundreds of sources. The Millinery Department is now under full force and everyone that anticipates buying their Easter hats before Easter would do well to make their selection early. It is not the matter of choice, nor of price, but of service. Everything has its limit and this limit exists in our millinery force, as we trim hats free of charge, and we give you chance to select from the largest and best selected stock of hats and trimmings that has ever been shown in Wilmington. Our Millinery Department has been large for a great many years, but the addition we built on our store last year that represents 7,500 feet additional feet of floor space, adds largely to the millinery department as well as the children's dresses and Ladies' wear. I wish to thank the ladies for their patronage visiting our Opening, and would thank them further to give their hat wants a little previous thought and not wait until the day before Easter.

In our Dress Goods Department we are showing some extremely pretty things at a small price. We have thirty pieces of Arnold's Silks that would be sold wholesale at 50c that I picked up in remnants and am offering the goods today at 25c per yard, a silk dress for $2.50 and a prettier and would wear longer than a foulard silk that would cost you $7.50. Silk Ginghams that is worth 50c per yard we are showing ten colors and patterns at 29c per yard; 25 pieces of solid colored of silk finish longerie, the goods are fine, will wear perfect, and fast colors, and sold everywhere at 25c, these 22 pieces of goods are on sale at 15c per yard.

Ten pieces of black Organdie with French finish, regular 12 1-2c quality, will be on sale Monday for 8c per yard. The Dress Goods and Silk Department in this store is one of the strongest departments in the city of Wilmington, and caters to your wants in every line.

Now Is the Time to Advertise in The Morning Star

Mystery of a Lost Ring

[Copyright, 1908, by American Press Association.]

The main incident of this story was given me for a fact.

The loss of Sophie Brock's engagement ring was a mystery. Less than a week after Clarence Howes had given it to her she went to bed one night with it on her finger, and when she woke up in the morning it was gone. The bedding was searched and shaken; the bed was taken apart, but the ring did not appear.

There was no evidence of burglary except that the sash of a window in Sophie's room, which had been closed when she went to bed, was found in the morning raised.

The persons in the house besides the servants were Sophie's father, mother, a younger brother, aged ten, and her cousin, Winifred Loomis, about her own age. Sophie and Winifred were the only persons sleeping on the floor from which the ring had disappeared. Winifred was an orphan and had been taken in for charity. She was studying to become a teacher. There was no possible explanation of the ring's loss except Winifred had taken it off her cousin's finger while the latter slept. But this did not account for the open window. Besides, Winifred was regarded by all who knew her as an upright, conscientious girl.

As to the theory of the theft by a servant, it was impossible, for the doors leading from both Sophie's and Winifred's room were locked and bolted, though the two rooms communicated and the door between them was open.

When Sophie told her lover of her loss she intimated she believed that for some unknown reason Winifred had coveted the ring and had yielded to a temptation to take it off her finger while she slept. Howes remonstrated against throwing suspicion upon any one without proof, especially Winifred, whom all loved and respected. Indeed, so earnestly did he enter upon Winifred's defense that Sophie took his action for a clew. It suddenly appeared to her that she had a rival in Winifred—that her rival could not endure to see her wearing a ring on her finger which had been given her by the man she (Winifred) loved, and this was her motive for stealing it.

What we fear we are apt to bring to pass. Howes was a manly fellow, and the moment suspicion, which he considered unjust, was thrown upon Winifred he became interested in her and in the solution of the mystery by which she suffered. He questioned Winifred closely upon every detail, and one day Sophie came upon the two unawares while engaged in an animated conversation. Sophie's glance at the couple caused both to blush. She passed on without a word, and the result of the encounter was a new complication. Sophie was now sure of her explanation of the mystery and was doubly sure that Winifred had captured her lover.

Of all social conditions the most exasperating is one involving things known and not spoken. Howes knew that he was suspected of being on terms with Winifred that were not acceptable to his fiancee. Winifred knew this and that she was suspected of having stolen the ring. Sophie knew that both the others were aware of these things, and yet all this knowledge was ignored between the trio. On the surface Howes and Sophie were lovers; under the surface Howes and Winifred were fast being drawn together by an irresistible power, sympathy in one, gratitude in the other.

Howes received a brief note from Sophie breaking her engagement without giving any reason. It drew color to his cheek and a flash to his eye. He replied, accepting the situation without comment. Winifred remained a member of the Brock household. Why shouldn't she? No one had openly accused her. No one treated her any differently than before the mystery. Nevertheless she lived a wretched life, counting the days till she should be equipped to earn her own living.

One night she awoke suddenly from sleep. The full moon was shining into the room, and by its light she saw her cousin in her room standing before a mirror combing her hair. Winifred asked her what in the world she was doing that for. There was no reply, and in another moment Sophie passed into her own room. There she threw up a window and leaned over the sill, looking out. Winifred, realizing that she had to deal with a sleepwalker and not daring to leave her at the window, led her to her bed. Sophie lay down without awakening, and Winifred watched beside her.

While Winifred lay awake she thought. The loss of the ring must be in some way connected with this somnambulism. Might not her cousin have dropped the ring in the room or out the window? The next morning she revealed what she had seen. Sophie, regarding the story as made up to exonerate Winifred, received it with silent scorn. Winifred searched her cousin's room when Sophie was absent and found—nothing. Howes searched the grounds, also without success.

This was in midsummer. One day in October the gardener was pulling up some withered vegetable stalks in the kitchen garden in the rear yard and found the missing ring. It recalled to him that one night while standing at his door he had seen some one throw something from a window of Sophie's room. Sophie had thrown the ring from her window while asleep.

The explanation came too late to effect a reconciliation between Sophie Brock and Clarence Howes. He married Winifred Loomis.

Retail Merchants' Association to Gather This Evening—Membership.

A very important meeting of the recently organized Retail Merchants' Association will be held tonight at 8:30 o'clock at the Court House and it is especially urged that every member be present as very important matters will be discussed. Among other things of an interesting nature the committee on by-laws will report and these will require the earnest consideration of every member. The officers and directors have been hard at work since the last general meeting and the members should certainly manifest sufficient interest to further encourage them to get the Association on a thoroughly sound basis. Every member will be expected tonight.

C. F. A. THE WINNERS.

Defeated Grove Academy at League Park Yesterday—Visitors.

By the decisive score of 13 to 8 the Cape Fear Academy baseball team defeated Grove Academy, of Kenansville, yesterday afternoon at League Park in a pretty exhibition of the National sport. The attendance was about 200 and all expenses were met. The Grove Academy team was in charge of Prof. L. McNeill, the principal, and Prof. C. C. Shaw, and they made a fine impression in the city, being delightfully entertained while here by the C. F. A. boys. The visitors express high appreciation of the manner in which they were received.

The visitors scored two runs in the second, one in the sixth, one in the eighth and four in the ninth, but C. F. A. had gained a lead it was impossible to overcome with one in the first, two in the fourth, four in the fifth, one in the sixth and five in the seventh inning. Costly errors in two innings lost the day for Grove, although the visitors hit well and were not slow on bases. The pitching of Parks for the visitors, the fielding of Bergen, the work of Schulken at third and Hanson at short for C. F. A. were the features.

The teams lined up as follows:

Grove		C. F. A.

MR. TURNBULL DEAD.

President of Rowland Lumber Co., at Bowden's Died Suddenly.

The Theatre

For the number of artists the Crystal Palce is this week offering its biggest bill of the season. The bill is also decidedly clever and has much novelty about it. As an extra inducement the Palace management wired Sunday for a rattling good quartette and yesterday the well known and popular Jolly Four, a fine singing and comedy quartette that has been playing the best of time, made its appearance at the Palace. The act presented by the Jolly Four is a big hit and furnishes some delightful music. There are two topliner acts this week, however, as the comedy sketch team of Percy and Spellman is on the bill with the one act musical farce, "The Hobo's Dilemma." The playlet caught the fancy of Palace-goers yesterday and was vigorously applauded. There are two other good acts on the present bill, one being a blackface turn by Tom Ripley and the other being a novelty in a female imperonation act by sam Cordes.

Three Films at Bijou.

The Bijou will offer three new films this afternoon and evening, "Jones Has Bought a Phonograph," "The Ambassador's Despatch Case," and "Kenilworth," scenes from Sir Walter Scott's famous novel. The illustrated song will be by Mr. Edward J. Reilly and will be "Sunny Italy."

At The LeGrand.

Two of the newest and latest pictures will be offered at The LeGrand today with a new song. Tickets will be given out Thursday, Friday and Saturday with every paid admission entitling some boy on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock to receive a ball, bat and mit.

DREDGE FOR SEABOARD

Important Work on Enlargement of Terminals—First Clinchfield Coal.

Superintendoent Chas. A. Nelson, of the Maryland Dredging Co., spent Sunday and a part of yesterday in the city and closed a contract with the tug Alexander Jones, of this port, to tow to Wilmington dredging apparatus from Beaufort, N. C., for beginning work in dredging and cutting out the slips for the Seaboard Air Line terminal improvement in this city. The dredge apparatus is expected this week and will begin work immediately on this important enterprise.

In this connection it will be a source of interest and gratification to know that on yesterday the Seaboard received from its connection at Bostic, N. C., the first consignment of cars of coal from the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railroad. The first installment consisted of ten car loaods and it was distributed at different points down the road, one car coming as far this way as Pembroke, where it was shifted to the Atlantic Coast Line for Florence, S. C. Very soon now shipments of this coal will be brought through to Wilmington.

NEGRO GETS SIX MONTHS.

Defendant For Larceny Got Heaviest Sentence Imposed by Recorder.

The heaviest sentence yet imposed by the Recorder was in the case of Son McAllister, colored, who was tried yesterday on the charge of the larceny of a watch from Bessie McFadden, who was the prosecuting witness, the colored man being found guilty and sentenced to six months on the county roads. Conclusive evidence was introduced against McAllister, the watch being taken from the trunk of the woman and being later found on his person by the latter. The negro was sent to the roads to begin the term.

Rufus Young, colored, was tried for assault and battery and fined $5 and the costs. Being unable to pay the amount he was sent to the roads.

The sessions of the Recorder's Court are being held at the City Hall while the Superior Court is in session.

Lay Important Drain.

Material is being placed on the ground and work will be commenced this morning laying underground drainage on Red Cross street, from Front to Third. This work has been badly needed for some time and will be a great improvement. During heavy rains the street without drainage is badly washed, it being impossible to make permanent repairs on the surface and the hill there serves to flood Front street at every downpour. The pipe will connect at Front and Red Cross with two large drains and the street will not have to be torn up where it is paved. Mayor Springer says that the work will be completed as rapidly as possible.

REPUBLICANS CRITICISED

By Members of Their Party in Senate. Resolution Against General Legislation—Tariff Debate—Caucus Resolution.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, March 29.—In the Senate today Senator Hale, Chairman of the Republican Caucus, introduced a resolution to confine the business of the extra session to the consideration of the tariff bill and the bill providing for the 13th census, but he afterwards amended it so as to permit the introduction of bills and the transaction of executive business.

Contrary to expectation, the resolution aroused a spirited discussion, but the debate dealt with other subjects than the limitation of business. Apparently there was no objection to such limitation, but the measure went over until Thursday to allow further consideration of the question.

During the session, Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, took occasion to criticise the distribution of the Republican membership of the Finance Committee, declaring that while New England had three members on the committee the South had been entirely denied representation. His tone was very similar to that of Senator Scott, his colleague, who also criticised the distribution in the Republican senatorial caucus last Monday.

At 2:05 o'clock P. M. the Senate adjourned until next Thursday.

House of Representatives.

The tariff question was discussed in the House today in a ten and a half hour session. Not one of the many speakers favored the Payne bill in its entirety, while the Democrats found much in it to criticise and condemn. The maximum and minimum features of the proposed measure were especially obnoxious to them, while Republicans urged higher duties on lumber, iron, pottery and zinc ore, as well as a duty on coal.

Mr. Moon, of Tennessee, scathingly denounced those of his Democratic colleagues who adopted the caucus resolution, disciplining the 23 Democrats who supported the Fitzgerald amendment to the rules, and furnished the only exciting incident.

Those who spoke on the tariff were Messrs. James, of Kentucky; Cushman, of Washington; Kennedy, of Ohio; Gillette, of Massachusetts; Scott, of Kansas; Peters, of Massachsetts; Dieka, of Michigan, and Hull, of Tennessee.

Mr. James attacked the maximum and minimum features of the bill most strenuously. He declared that the plan of the tariff was that of punishing the consumer in the United States because the Governments across the sea won't deal fairly with American manufacturers. He denounced the sugar and tobacco trusts and argued at some length for an income tax, declaring it to be most fair and equitable.

Declaring that the Payne bill goes one step further in the "pillaging of humanity," Mr. James asked: "What is a reasonable profit? that the Republicans claim the measure would allow. "Who shall decide?" he asked. "Shall it be left to Andrew Carnegies, pricked by a conscience that has allowed him to loot for many years?"

Claiming that the provisions of the Dingley bill for the free entry of material and equipment entering into the construction and repair of vessels built in America to be employed in foreign trade has not had an effect in increasing the American merchant marine, Mr. Jones, of Virginia, opposed the re-enactment of these provisions. He charged that a provision in the present law which declares that vessels receiving the benefit of the act shall not engage in coastwise trade of the United States for more than two months in any one year, without paying to the Government the remitted duties, was the reason why no American shipyards are constructing ocean vessels out of free imported materials.

Mr. Scott, of Kansas, declared that lumber ought to be put upon the free list and contended that the duty on hides ought to be restored, that the the duty on tea should be removed, and that an additional internal revenue tax should be levied upon beer. He also opposed the enactment of a federal law taxing inheritances.

DEBATE LAST EVENING

Discussion of Interesting Subject by Literary Society.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening with the interesting subject of debate, "Resolved: That Inventions have benefitted the world more than discoveries." Messrs. J. A. Bryson and T. L. Cromarty, for the affirmative, won the decision, the negative being represented by Messrs. D. L. Vafiada and A. H. Pait. Prose reading by Mr. J. F. Darrah and Poetry by Mr. T. W. Tate, during the meeting, was enjoyed. The Bible Study Club, Business Men's Class and Boy's Class, also held good meetings yesterday and last night.

Mr. Edgar N. Robinson, of New York, secretary of the Boy's Department of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., and who recently attended the meeting of the Associations of the two Carolinas in Charlotte will be a welcomed visitor to the Wilmington Association today.

JUNIORS' PRESENTATION.

Flag and Bible For District School. Large Gathering.

Interesting exercises marked the presentation of a flag and bible to District School No. 12, on the Castle Haynes road, Sunday afternoon by the local councils of Juniors, which gathering was attended by a large number from the order besides many visitors. The programme was carried out in detail as previously given and the orator of the occasion, Jos. W. Little, Esq., made a splendid address on the principles of the order in presenting the flag and bible to the school. The meeting was presided over by Woodus Kellum, Esq., who introduced the speaker.

In behalf of the institution the bible and flag were received by Miss Louise Seitter, a pupil, following which the large number present assembled in front of the building and watched the new flag hoisted over the school.

The First Baptist Revival.

The revival services conducted by Rev. R. L. Motley, of Salisbury, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., at the First Baptist church began Sunday with an excellent congregation at each service and the meetings are attracting much interest in the community. Rev. Mr. Motley is an able preacher and has won the favor and admiration of all who have heard him. There will be two meetings each day, in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. J. A. Brown, the tarpist, is making a fine impression.

Herbert L. Swift, 33 years old, son of the late Gustavous Q. Swift, founder of the Pacific firm of Swift & Co. was adjudged insane by a commission of physicians recently and sent to the Kenilworth Sanitarium on March 8th by order of the county clerk. This became public through the discovery of the files in the case.

Given Rousing Reception, Chiefly by Negroes—To Challenge Jeffries.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Mch. 29.—Nearly 1,000 men greeted Jack Johnson, the negro champion heavy-weight pugilist, when he arrived here today. The crowd was made up for the most part of negroes and they cheered with enthusiasm.

A score of sight-seeing automobiles were in waiting and Johnson with his immediate friends entered a machine at the head of the line. The procession passed through West Broad street and down Broadway to 27th, west to Seventh avenue and then to a hotel in West 35th street.

All along the route the sidewalks were lined by curious observers and admirers of the champion, who saluted him with cheers as he passed.

A crowd of several hundred persons gathered in front of the hotel. Johnson appeared on a balcony and said:

"I'm glad to get back home again. When I left here I did not wear the crown that I now wear and while I wear this crown I'll do my best to defend it against all comers. I am willing to fight with anybody and won't ask the money in advance as Burns did when he fought me. My sole purpose in coming to New York today was to force Jim Jeffries into a match. I am going to post a forfeit of $5,000 for a match for $10,000. I am willing to fight any man in the world."

THE AZORES REACHED

The Hamburg Touches There—The Roosevelt Party Well.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Horta, Fayal, Azores, March 29.—The steamer Hamburg with Theodore Roosevelt and the members of his party on board, put in here today to leave the mails. The Governor met Mr. Roosevelt and drove him about the city. There was no official receipt. Mr. Roosevelt attended a dance on board the Hamburg Saturday evening. He did not dance, but his son Kermit took part in the entertainment and danced with several of the young ladies on board. All the members of the Roosevelt party are well. The Hamburg left here this afternoon for Gibraltar by way of Ponta del Gada on the Island of Sao Miguel.

London, Mch. 29.—The Daily Mail's Horta correspondent says: "Reports are current and I repeated them with reserve that an attempt has been made upon the life of ex-President Roosevelt."

London, Mch. 27—A dispatch to The Standard from Horta says that when the steamer Hamburg arrived it was learned that an attempt had been made aboard to assault ex-President Roosevelt, but that it was frustrated and his would-be assailant placed in irons.

LOUISIANA LIQUOR LAW.

Supreme Court Decides It is Not Retroactive.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New Orleans, Mch. 29.—In the State Supreme Court this afternoon a decision was handed down declaring that the Gay-Shattuc Liquor law passed at the last meeting of the Louisiana Assembly is not retroactive.

The act states that no license shall be issued to a saloon to operate within 600 feet of a church or school. Had it been applied to the saloons already established it would have done away with the bars in the principal hotels and clubs of New Orleans and put out of business a thousand or more saloons throughout the State. The liquor men also contended that if the law were made retroactive the prohibition workers by scattering a few small chapels and business colleges around New Orleans and the State at large, could easily add Louisiana to the column of States dry in the South.

The President yesterday withdrew the nomination of Thomas R. Lyons to be judge of the District of Alaska, First Division, pending an investigation into Mr. Lyons' official conduct

DETECTIVE KILLED ASSAILANT

Johnson Shot Dead By a Pinkerton After a Terrific Struggle.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, March 29.—Frederick Johnson, an elevator man in an apartment house at No. 615 Fifth avenue was shot and killed tonight by Joseph Parise, a Pinkerton detective, in a hand-to-hand struggle in an elevator in the building. The detective had arrested Johnson for entering a flat which Parise had been watching. Parise had a finger shot off in the fight and is in Flower hospital.

Johnson readily submitted when to the detective and the men started for the lower floor Johnson managing the car. Johnson suddenly attacked the detective, throwing him violently to the floor of the car. He was endeavoring to beat and kick Parise into unconsciousness according to the Pinkerton, when the latter manager to draw his revolver. Johnson immediately kicked it from his grasp, grabbed it and fired at the detective, shooting off his finger.

Parise and the elevator man closed in a terrific hand to hand struggle for the weapon. In some manner, during the fight the elevator came to a standstill at the third floor. Here the men struggled back and forth for some minutes until the detective finally gained possession of the revolver and fired two shots. One went through Johnson's eye and the other through his heart and he fell dead.

FIRE LOSS OF MILLION.

Two Piers of Havana Central Destroyed and Steamer Damaged.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Havana, Mch. 29.—The two piers of the Havana Central Railroad in the upper part of the harbor were totally destroyed by fire which broke out at 11 o'clock this morning. It is reported that the fire was of incendiary origin. The total damage done is estimated at $1,000,000 which is covered by insurance. A number of lighters loaded with sugar were lying at the piers when the fire broke out. They were cut loose and were blown to sea by the strong southerly gale, threatening destruction to steamers and other craft in the harbor. Some of the vessels hoisted their anchors and shifted their position to escape the peril. Several blazing barges drifted to the mouth of the harbor being stranded off Morro Castle.

The Hamburg-American Line steamer Altenoburg, which was lying at the second pier discharging her cargo of rice, was unable to get away. Tugs could not render her assistance on account of the dense smoke and the crew of the steamer were compelled to abandon her and take refuge on the adjacent pier. It was thought at first that the steamer was totally destroyed but the fire was checked after it had damaged the vessel to the extent of $80,000.

Representative Edwards, of Georgia, has introduced a bill looking to a change in the system of paying mileage to Members of the House and Senators, so as to recompense them for their actual expenses instead of giving them 20 cents per mile as at present.

ADMITTED FEARFUL CRIME.

Hopfer Kills Wife and Child and Then Loses Courage.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Grand Rapids, Mich., Mch. 29.—An atrocious double murder was committed in Antrim county last night when the wife and infant child of George Hopfer, a farmer were hacked to death with an axe. Their decapitated bodies were found in bed today at the Hopfer home. The father was found in the woods. He was placed under arrest. Hopfer confessed that he killed his wife and child. He said that he and his wife talked all night about how nice it would be foro the three of them to die together. Finally, according to Hopfer's story, it was agreed between them that he should kill them all. With a stick of wood he thereup on beat his wife and baby over the head until they were dead. He then chopped their heads off with an axe. When he saw them dead he says that he lost his courage and instead of killing himself fled into the woods. The authorities think Hopfer is demented.

RUMORS OF WAR CEASE.

Servia and Austria-Hungary Reach an Agreement—Europe's Demand.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Belgrade, Mch. 29.—Servia has surrendered completely to the demands of Europe.

The interventions of the powers in respect to Servia and Austria-Hungary will be made clear to the Servian government tomorrow when the Russian minister will have received instructions from St. Petersburg. It was the intentions of the representatives of Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy to inform the Servian government this afternoon of the recognition by the powers of the annexation of Bosnia and Herzoganvia by Austria-Hungary and to advise Servia to accept the settlement. Notwithstanding, however, that this action has not yet been taken, Servia has accepted the plan in principle and many reservists have already been discharged.

A MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

Attempted Murder and Suicide Without Known Cause.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Denver, Colo., Mch. 29.—John Collins, father of Mrs. Jessie McDonald, wife of former Governor McDonald, today shot and wounded Miss Sarah Nichols, and then killed himself. The motive is unknown. Collins came to Denver recently from Plattsburg, N. Y.

Miss Nichols was Mrs. McDonald's aunt on her mother's side. Collins is believed to have been insane. Collins just before the shooting, was sitting in a rear room of the McDonald home talking to Miss Nichols. She arose and went into another room. Collins followed and, drawing a revolver, fired. Miss Nichols fell and Collins then killed himself. Miss Nichols' condition is precarious.

A LONE TRAIN ROBBER.

He Passes Through Train, Collects Booty and Escapes.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Fairfield, Neb., Mch. 29.—A masked train robber with a red lantern stopped a local passenger train on the Burlington road last night near here, boarded the train and forced the conductor to carry a sack through the passenger coach and collect $200 and 17 watches from the passengers—19 women and two men. He pocketed the booty, dropped off the rear end of the train and escaped.

Delicious Gingerbread.

Children are great lovers of gingerbread, and grown folks, too, if it is of the rich "melt-in-the-mouth" kind. The following recipe by the famous Mrs. Mary J. Lincoln, is commended to those who delight in this delicacy:

Mix two cups flour, one-half level teaspoon salt, one level teaspoon soda, one level tablespoon ginger; stir in one cup molasses, two tablespoons softened Cottolene and one-half cup boiling water. Bake in shallow pan. If for dessert, bake in layers. Fill with whipped cream, flavored with lemon.

The little ones can eat this freely. Lard is indigestible, but Cottolene, the perfect shortening, makes food that agrees with the most delicate stomachs.

Our Spring caprices are not only "eye-pleasers" but also "purse-pleasers." Our plan of business is to mark our goods at the low price first. This is why so many have learned to come to us first and look no further.

Spring Suits in woolens and wash fabrics. The greatest opportunity a woman ever had to buy perfect fitting, stylish outer garments will be this season in our Suit Department.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Bayboro Sentinel: Mr. Carr, who has been here sinking an Artesian well for the past week, succeeded in striking a flow at the depth of 175 feet. The water is fine white sulphur water and the flow is six gallons per minute. Bayboro now has plenty of water and good water.

—Newbern Journal: Owing to the great movement of commercial fertilizers in this city, it is often difficult, to hire the services of a dray and this thing has been going on for weeks. Newbern is rapidly getting to be the big State distributing point for fertilizers.

—Newbern Journal: Professor W. F. Massey who does work on the Progressive Farmer and other agricultural periodicals, was here yesterday on his return from a trip along the truck line from Florida to North Carolina. Professor Massey said the cold weather had severely hurt the truck crops at Charleston and further south.

—Wadesboro Messenger: There is more or less mystery surrounding a cablegram from London which was received at the telegraph office here Saturday, March 19th. The cablegram is addressed to "Culbil, Peachland N. C." The cablegram came prepaid but the person for whom it is intended has not yet been located.

—Winston Journal, March 28th: After spending a good day, Hon. C. B. Watson, who has been lying desperately ill at his home for several weeks, was reported at 3 o'clock this morning as being very restless. He slept none during the night. It is not known whether he has gained ground or lost during the past few days, as one day he is restless and the next quiet. His attendants are still hopeful.

—Greensboro March 28: The regular term of Guilford Superior Court convenes here Monday, Judge B. R. Long presiding. The case in which most interest is felt is the indictments against ex-Senator Butler and Lester Butler, his brother, charged with criminal libel of Republican State Chairman S. B. Adams. The case is set for peremptory trial for Wednesday, March 31st. There is a common expression of opinion here that if the defendants are ready for trial the prosecution will not be and vice versa.

—Oxford, N. C., March 27.—Judge J. Crawford Biggs spent Thursday in Oxford. The coach on the Southern in which Judge Biggs was seated was struck by a cyclone, as the train was leaving East Durham Thursday morning, which for several minutes caused considerable excitement and alarm. According to his statement, suddenly strange, loud noises were heard, evidently on the roof of the coach and unaccountable to conductor and all in the coach; soon the car commenced leaking, and it was discovered that the tin roof had been torn off by the violent wind storm while the car was in rapid motion. No further damage resulted.

—Winston Journal: Rev. A. I. Garrison, pastor of the Four-Fold Gospel church in this city, is preparing to go to the missionary field in India in October. He will go under the direction of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, which already has about 300 missionaries in the foreign fields. Mr. Garrison received the call several years ago to go to India and since that time he has been devoting his energies toward giving himself all the preparation possible in this country. This will be his second visit to India. When a boy of 8 years old, his parents went to the field and stayed for four years, the young boy and his mother returning to this country upon the death of the father.

—News and Observer: 28th: Chief of Police Mullins stated just before midnight last night that he had been unable to secure any clue as to the guilty party destroying the city records. He heard a rumor that The News and Observer would expose the guilty one in this morning's issue and called at the office to ascertain if this was correct, saying that he would like to arrest the party before the publication. The News and Observer is unable as yet to positively locate the guilt, but indications point to a sensational exposure if the efforts of those working on the case are in the right direction. On the streets several names are being linked with the crime.

—Charlotte News: Mr. S. S. McNinch who went to Washington with the committee to invite President Taft to come to Charlotte on the 20th of May says: "I was much impressed at the recognition given Mr. Charles J. Harris, former Republican candidate for Governor of North Carolina. Mr. Taft and he were college mates and there is a sincere bond of friendship between them. This means much to North Carolina and the South because Mr. Harris, who is a man of affairs, is broadminded, patriotic and zealous for the interests of the South as distinct from political motives. I believe that we are better off in many respects because of this interest and friendship that exists between the two. In fact I know it."

The Lurid Glow of Doom

was seen in the red face, hands and body of the little son of H. M. Adams, of Henrietta, Pa. His awful plight from eczema had, for five years, defied all remedies and baffled the best doctors, who said the poisoned blood had affected his lungs and nothing could save him. "But," writes his mother, "seven bottles of Electric Bitters completely cured him." For Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Sores and all Blood Disorders and Rheumatism Electric Bitters is supreme. That Dull PAIN in Pit of your Stomach Indicates that You Need Kodol

Kodol is an excellent preparation for any trouble of this sort, caused by bad digestion. As Kodol at once digests the food, and keeps it digested, the bad digestion disappears of itself. It can't help it. Kodol will digest any kind of food—anywhere that it finds it. Kodol is made to do this one thing—and by doing this properly, it accomplishes wonders with ailing digestive organs. Whenever you have any trouble with your stomach, such as "heartburn," belchings, sour stomach, etc., just take a few doses of Kodol and see how quickly your stomach gets well. You will be surprised (if you have never used Kodol) at how easily and naturally it deals with all digestive disorders.

Our Guarantee. Get a dollar bottle of Kodol. If you are not benefited—the druggist will at once return your money. Don't hesitate: any druggist will sell you Kodol on these terms. The dollar bottle contains 2½ times as much as the 50c bottle. Kodol is prepared in the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Mch. 29.—The cotton market was more active and ruled generally firm today, and prices closed firm at a net advance of 5 to 11 points.

The market opened steady at an advance of 2 to 6 points in response to higher cables than expected and while there was a reaction to within a point or so of Saturday's finals during the early trading as a result of realizing and local selling for a turn, offerings were quickly taken and the market soon firmed up again, reaching the high est point late in the day when May sold at 9.53 and October at 9.27, or about 22 to 32 points above the low level of last week.

There was considerable profit taKing in the last half hour, but last prices were within a point or so of the top and commission houses had good buying orders. The reaction immediately following the call was probably promoted by the report of the International Federation of Master Spinners indicating stocks of American cotton in the hands of the world's spinners of 3,044,000 bales, comparing with 1,555,000 bales at these corresponding dates last year. These figures made little impression, however. While the bull party in the near months appeared to be more aggressive, private advices indicated generally steady interior market and taken as a whole the day's market showed a decidedly better tone, partly due, perhaps to the stronger stock market, reports that the European political situation had been cleared up, and claims that the weather was clearing in the Southwest with recent rainfall insufficient to materially relieve the winter drought situation. Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to 5 points higher.

Receipts at the ports today were 15,580 bales, against 23,304 last week, and 13,453 last year; for the week 100,000 bales, against 99,944 last week and 103,703 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 3,979 bales against 3,593 last year, and at Houston 3,199 bales against 2,234 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 10 points higher; middling uplands 9.85; middling gulf 10.10; sales 700 bales. Futures opened steady and closed firm.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Mch. 29.—The dry goods market was generally quiet. There was more inquiry reported for cotton goods and cotton yarns and a moderate amount of business was done. Imported dress goods are beginning to accumulate in some quarters. Raw silk is heavy in foreign markets.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Mch. 29.—The stock market today fulfilled the promise of a wider speculative interest which was contained in the sudden revival on Saturday. The effect of the rapid advance in prices at the end of the week was to bring in a large increase of orders for stocks today which were executed in the market with many symptoms of speculative excitement. The volume of the market was run up by noon to half a million shares, this rather exceeding the recent average for a full day's business.

Buying orders were responsible for the buoyant upshoot of opening prices, first quotations in United States Steel and in Union Pacific being wide or at simultaneous prices varying a fraction. Foreign markets contributed the influence of the settlement of the dispute betwen Austria and Servia reported in the morning dispatchs. This relieved the London and the European markets from quite a weight of depression, and combined with t he brightening money outlook to stimulate a speculative revival abroad. The speculative interest continued to lay much stress on the early return to the financial district intended by E. H. Harriman and the conferences which have taken place betwen that gentleman and President Louis Hill, of the Great Northern. The Harriman stocks were prominent features of strength. Another factor in the strength of the market was the news from Washington concerning efforts to expedite the passage of the tariff bill.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, were $5,798,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today were 1,009,000 shares.

INDIAN UPRISING SAFELY IN HAND

Militia and Deputies Surround Chief at Midnight and The Fight is Ended.

ANOTHER RED SKIN KILLED

Indians and Posse Had Fierce Fight in Early Morning—Band Routed and Several Captured. Events in the Wilds.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Oklahoma City, March 29.—Chitti Hrajo (Crazy Snake) was surrounded at midnight in the North Canadian bottoms near Pierce. Three hundred militia men, cowboys and deputy sheriffs were closing in on him and his capture was expected at day break.

Hickory Ground via Henrietta, Okla., March 29.—Honey Scott, a subchief of the Snake band and three other Indians, all charged with aiding abetting the recent disturbances Saturday were arrested four miles southwest of Hickory Ground today. It is believed this will have the effect of hastening a surrender of the bands.

Oklahoma City, Ola., March 29.—There were about 15 Indians in one band and they had taken refuge in a house. The deputies had tracked them for some distance.

Advancing from all sides, the posse fired a volley at the frail house. The Indians rushed out, scattered among the trees and made a valiant defense. The posse, firing steadily, advancing and routed the band. None of those captured is seriously injured but it is said that a number of Indians were hit with bullets.

Crazy Snake's band apparently has broken up into numerous small groups. It seemed at nightfall that each Indian was trying to accomplish his own escape without regard for the grand dreams of the chieftain, to realize which they were called together Sunday by the smoke of signal fires. All efforts at organization resistance seemed to have been dropped.

The militia men, too, scattered in bands and invaded the hilly wooded region of the Creek Nation in a determined effort to hunt down both leaders and members of the war party. The soldiers soon captured eight members of Crazy Snake's forces. Among those arrested are Little Tiger, a subchief, and Simla Harjo. The latter is not related to Chitti Harjo. Most of these were heavily armed.

The captives were startel for the militia camp at Hickory Ground under heavy guard. Orders were issued that the search be kept up and numerous parties went out during the early hours of the night to round up the renegades.

The Indian killed by the posse was the only fatality of the day reported to Colonel Hofman, who is in command of the State troops. There are numerous rumors of engagements.

One story was that a posse of farmers near Chetocah fought a large band of negro renegades and killed twenty This and some other reports cannot be confirmed.

Deputy sheriff Frank Jones today reported that he and his posse had part of Crazy Snake's band surrounded, including the chief. This gave rise to a story that the Snake leader was killed.

Tonight it was thought that Crazy Snake had carried out his last night's intention of seeking refuge in the Hickory hills and that he was supported there by some of his chief followers.

DOYLE GIVEN HEARING.

Bond of Accused Kidnapper Fixed at $25,000—Short Procedure.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Sharon, Pa., Mch. 29.—It required but a few minutes this afternoon for the preliminary hearing of James H. Doyle, charged with the abduction of Willie Whitla. Two questions and answers made up the proceedings.

"What is your name?" asked Justice S. S. Gilbert.

"James H. Boyle," was the reply.

"Do you want a hearing on the charge of abduction now?" he was asked.

"Not at this time," he replied, and the hearing was over.

Bail was fixed at $25,000, which it is said Boyle has no chance of securing and the prisoner was returned to the jail at Mercer on the first train. About 500 persons, impelled by curiosity, surrounded the station where Boyle was waiting in mortal terror for the train, bout not the slightest demonstration against him was made or indicated.

Conference in New Orleans of Delegates From Southern States—Advocates of More Stringent Laws Present.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New Orleans, Mch. 29.—Seeking accomplishment of uniform child labor laws in the South, delegates from a number of Southern States gathered in New Orleans today for a conference to extend over a period of three days.

Not only does the convention mark the first concerted movement in this direction in the South, but it is made further notable by the fact that in attendance upon it are both leading exponents of a more stringent child labor regulation and prominent manufacturers employing child labor, as well as leading public officials.

Various view points were presented at the first session of the congress this afternoon and from the different expressions and suggestions that are to be offered during the course of the convention, it is hoped to arrive at the provisions of what constitute a model child labor law bill for adoption by the States of the South.

Governor Sanders, of Louisiana, was called to act as premanent chairman after the details of preliminary organization had been carried out and several addresses had been delivered. He declared that the views which would be submitted would be, in many instances, widely divergent and that compromises would be inevitable, as in the actual enactment of all laws. In commenting on the changed conditions in the South in the last generation, Governor Sanders said that he did not know but what the transition from an agricultural South to a commercial and manufacturing South spoke no good for the people.

Governor Herbert S. Hadley, of Missouri, declared that it was the duty and right of the States to protect the children and women who toil and that Missouri was ready to join in any movement which aimed at this.

James W. VanCleave, of St. Louis, president of the National Manufacturers' Association, spoke from the manufacturers' standpoint. He declared that the great majority of manufacturers are in favor of making the minimum age for the employment of children at 14 years and that great injustice was done manufacturers in assuming that they were opposed to child labor regulation. He believed that it would be only a comparatively short time before the wonderful improvement of machinery would create conditions so that there would be no room for children in factories and declared that child labor was in reality not profitable labor to the manufacturer. As to the laws for the regulation of the child employment he declared: "Make the parent responsible to the State and you will have solved the problem."

Miss Jean Gordon, factory inspector for the city of New Orleans, entered into a severe arraignment of laws existing in the majority of the Southern States, "which grind out the welfare and happiness of women and children. She made a sarcastic reference to the establishment of night schools and libraries for children and women employed in factories, declaring "you might as well install an art gallery in an asylum for the blind."

ELECTION SET ASIDE

Court Declares That of Roanoke to be Invalid.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Roanoke, Va., March 29.—Judge Walter P. Staples, in the corporation court of Roanoke today set aside the local option election held here on December 30 last in which the saloon was voted out by a majority of 86 votes. The saloons would have closed tomorrow night had the election been declared valid. The election is declared null and void on the ground that the tax list as furnished by City Treasurer Lawrence S. Davis was illegal. The costs were placed upon the "wets."

The court pointed out that the Treasurer, not the judges of election, are to be criticised for the insufficiency of the tax list. The law imposes upon the Treasurer the duty of ascertaining the fact of "personal payment" of the poll tax. This, it was shown, the Treasurer had failed to do. The court announced willingness to hear a motion for another election to be predicated on the original petition. Anti-saloon League leaders met later, but arrived at no decision as to what course will be pursued.

ELECTROCUTED FOR MURDER

A Woman Pays Death Penalty For Killing Another Woman.

NO HITCH IN EXECUTION

Second Woman to Suffer Death in Electric Chair in New York—She Leaves Statement Declaring Husband Innocent.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Auburn, N. Y., Mch. 29.—Murmuring a prayer for her soul, Mrs. Mary Farmer was quietly led to the electric chair in Auburn prison shortly after 6 o'clock this morning and executed for the murder of Mrs. Sarah Brennan at Brownville last April.

The execution of Mrs. Farmer—the second infliction of the death penalty on a woman by electricity in this State—was effected without sensational incident. Father Hickey, spiritual adviser of the condemned, following the execution, gave out a statement signed by Mrs. Farmer in which she declared that her husband, James Farmer, was entirely innocent and knew nothing of the crime until after it had been committed.

Mrs. Farmer walked unfalteringly to the death chair, her eyes half closed and clasping a crucifix in her hands. One of the officials adjusted the leg electrode. The rubber mask was adjusted over the eyes and the head electroae fastened. A spoken word from the State electrician and the attendants, nurses and Warden Benham stepped back from the thick rubber mat upon which the death chair is placed.

The hand of State Electrician Davis traced a slow arch with the switch behind the curtain. A half spoken prayer was halted as the condemned woman convulsed in the leather harness that bound her to the chair. A woman attendant covered her face with her hands. Only the clicking of the tightening straps and the murmur of the dynamos in the adjoining room could be heard.

The first contact lasted a full minute, the voltage starting at 1,840 and being gradually lowered to 200, then raised again to the full limit of 1,840 volts. The current was applied at 6:05 o'clock. The current was shut off and a strange sound—half moan and half murmur—came from the woman's lips. Dr. Gerin and Dr. Spotzka applied the stethoscope to the heart while Electrician Davis felt the artery in the neck. Muscular action was noted by the physicians and again the current passed through the woman's body for a period of a few seconds. Once more the physicians stepped forward and applied the tests to determine if life still remained in the limp figure in the chair. For the third time the State Electrician sent the current through the body.

The physicians among the State's witnesses were then called upon one after another to examine the woman and they pronounced her dead.

Dr. Gerin directed the prison attendants to remove the body to the autopsy room. The prison physician said: "Mrs. Farmer was killed at the first contact. There was some slight muscular movement as is usual and the additional contacts were applied until the tremors had ceased." She was officially pronounced dead at 6:15.

The physicians report that the autopsy disclosed that Mrs. Farmer was normal in every respect and the brain showed no lesions that would indicate a criminal tendency.

RAILROADS AND OTHERS FINED.

For Conspiracy Not to Haul a Company's Coal.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Salt Lake, Utah, Mch. 29.—In the United States District Court here today Judge Marshall fined the Union Pacific Railroad Co., the Oregon Short Line, the Union Pacific Coal Co., and J. M. Moore, manager of the Union Pacific Co., $3,000 each. Everett Buckingham, division traffic manager of the Oregon Short Line, was fined $1,000.

The fines are the result of a suit against the coal company and the two railroad companies by the D. J. Sharp Coal Co., of this city, who alleged that the defendants had conspired and had refused to haul coal previously purchased by the Sharp Company.

ECZEMA A GERM DISEASE.

Myriads of Microscopic Animals Infest the Skin of the Sufferer.

When the skin of an eczema sufferer itches and burns in untold agony, do you know what is going on within the pores of that skin?

Myriads of microscopic animals are gnawing at the flesh, breaking down the fine cells and causing festers, thick scales and that terrible itch. The germs multiply faster than Nature can throw them off.

Now, there is only one way to get rid of these germs—they must be killed in their lodging places. Dosing the stomach or trying to cure the blood will not, of course, kill the germs, and that is why all the blood remedies fail in eczema; that is also why salves which do not penetrate can do no permanent good.

Ordinarily oil of wintergreen properly compounded in liquid form will penetrate the pores of the skin and kill the eczema germs. If properly mixed with thymol, glycerine and other ingredients (as in D. D. D. Prescription) this wash will build up the tissue of the skin and promote its healthy growth, giving Nature a chance, while killing the germs faster than they can multiply.

Druggist Robt. R. Bellamy, of this city, recommends D. D. D. Prescription, also D. D. D. Soap.

ON THEIR ENDURANCE TEST.

Three New Scout Cruisers Start on Their Trial Trip.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Newport, R. I., Mch. 29.—Heading southwest toward Cape Hatteras, the three scout cruisers Birmingham, Chester and Salem swung off from Block Island at 10:30 o'clock A. M. on their second competitive endurance test, which requires them to make 750 miles at a speed of 15 knots an hour. The test is for a comparison of machinery action and coal consumption.

It is planned to steam 24 hours toward Cape Hatteras, which at 15 knots would bring the little fleet almost up to the lightship at the end of the cape and then to make another 24 hours run back to Block Island.
